

THE WANDERING GROOVE

Roots · Americana · Two-Piece · Philadelphia Area

The Wandering Groove is a roots and Americana duo from the Philadelphia area — Logan on guitar and Jake on bass, both sharing vocals. They play the kind of music that enhances your time with friends rather than overpowering it: groove-laced rhythms, folk-tinged ballads, and a sound that wanders through bluegrass, reggae, Americana, and gospel.

Based in Chester and Delaware Counties, they perform regularly at wineries, bars, and private events across the Philadelphia region and Wilmington area.
